Bring your WH Library Overdues Back - No Fines!

The Board of Trustees of the West Hempstead Public Library has voted to grant amnesty for all overdue materials returned during the period of August 27 through September 16, 2007. You will not be charged a fine for any overdue West Hempstead Library items returned during this amnesty period.

This is a great opportunity for West Hempstead residents to clear up their delinquent borrower records so that they will have full borrower privileges restored to use the new library. All other library rules apply.
