THANKS

Thank you to everyone who stopped by the WHPL table at the West Hempstead Street Fair on September 21, 2014. Those who took a survey were entered into a raffle for a chance to win a Kindle Paperwhite. We are proud to announce that the winner was Jenna Donolli. In addition, we had two library mugs as prizes. The mugs were won by Sandi Ellis and Mikey Welti.

Thank You to all of the members of the Friends of the
West Hempstead Public Library
for funding our membership to the Long Island Children’s Museum
in 2014.

Thank You to all of the members of the Friends of the
West Hempstead Public Library
for funding our membership to the
Long Island Children’s Museum
in 2014.

Stop by the library between Feb. 1st and Feb. 15th to participate in our “Blind Date with a Book” program! Blind Date with a Book matches you with an unknown book that you will take on your blind date by choosing to read it and give it a chance to make an impression on you. Then, register to come to our Blind Date Celebration on Thursday, February 26th at 7 p.m. Enjoy some sweet refreshments as everyone discusses how their blind date went. A nice way to end Library Lovers Month!

PUBLIC COMPUTER ADVISORY

Be advised that some public computers may not be available in the mornings for patron use. During this time, our tech support company maintains and updates the SAM computers used by patrons. Currently, this means that half of the machines (6) are unavailable for public use on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings until at least 10:15 a.m. Please plan accordingly. The updating schedule is subject to change, but will generally occur in the mornings. We will post the updating schedule at the Reference desk.

HUNTERDON HILLS PLAYHOUSE

Tuesday, March 3 $77 per person

Our first trip of the year is to see Abie’s Irish Rose. Young Abraham Levy tries to fool his strict Jewish father by introducing his new bride, Rosemary Murphy, as “Rosie Murphyski.” The plan actually seems to work at first until Rosemary’s strict Irish-Catholic father arrives on the scene and a hilarious tug-of-war erupts. Enjoy a new expanded lunch menu and make sure to save room for their famous all-you-can-eat dessert buffet! Pickup: 8:45 a.m. Return: Approximately 6:00 p.m. Registration for WH residents begins January 5. Non-residents can begin registering January 12.

TAX INFORMATION

To save money, AARP has asked the Tax-Aide program to consolidate tax sites. Unfortunately, this has led AARP to drop the West Hempstead Public Library as one of their tax locations.

Keep in mind that there are other alternative tax sites: the Hempstead, Malverne and Franklin Square Public Libraries, as well as the Bethpage Federal Credit Union (one does not have to be a member, and the service is free).
FILMS AT THE LIBRARY
Movies are shown on Sundays at 2 p.m.

FEBRUARY 1  DISNEY PLANES: FIRE & RESCUE
Rated PG; 84 minutes; Family/Adventure/Comedy. Starring: Dane Cook, Ed Harris, Teri Hatcher, Stacy Keach, Cedric the Entertainer

When world-famous air racer Dusty learns that his engine is damaged and he may never race again, he must shift gears and is launched into the world of aerial firefighting. Dusty joins forces with veteran fire and rescue helicopter Blade Ranger and his team, a bunch of all-terrain vehicles known as The Smokejumpers. Together, the fearless team battles a massive wildfire, and Dusty learns what it takes to become a true hero.

MARCH 1  GUARDIANS OF THE GALAXY
Rated PG-13; 121 minutes; Action/Adventure/Sci-Fi. Starring: Chris Pratt, Zoe Saldana, Vin Diesel, Bradley Cooper, Michael Rooker, Karen Gillan, Djimon Hounsou, John C. Reilly

From Marvel, the studio that brought you the global blockbuster franchises of Iron Man, Thor, Captain America and The Avengers, comes a new team - the Guardians of the Galaxy. An action-packed, epic space adventure, where brash adventurer Peter Quill must lead a small misfit team - Rocket, a gun-toting raccoon, Groot, a tree-like humanoid, the deadly and enigmatic Gamora and the revenge-driven Drax the Destroyer, against Ronan, a powerful villain with ambitions that threaten the entire universe. Can this rag-tag team save the galaxy?

WINTER 2015

Programs are open to West Hempstead residents. Space permitting, non-residents may participate. Programs are for students in Grades 6-12 unless otherwise noted.

Willem de Kooning: Painting with Words, Collaging With Color
A Long Island Children’s Museum Workshop
Thursday, January 15  6:30-8:30 p.m.
Registration begins Friday, January 2
Join us as we explore the life and art of Willem de Kooning, one of the famous artists of the abstract expressionist movement. Participants will experiment with abstracting letters and words into shapes and forms. Starting with black and white, you will paint and draw with a variety of materials while exploring planes of existence in your compositions. Inspired by de Kooning’s techniques and use of color, students will then learn about the world of collaborative collage as they layer and play with how colors interact with one another. Participants will create work that they can bring home with them, as well as a collaborative piece that will be exhibited at the Long Island Children’s Museum. Space is limited to 20 participants, so be sure to register early! There is no fee for this outstanding workshop. This program is made possible by a generous grant from The Willem de Kooning Foundation.

Palm Reading
Thursday, January 22  7-8 p.m.
Registration begins Friday, January 2
Janine Bendicksen returns to help you learn how to read your own palm and get insight into your personality. There is a limit of 20 participants, so make sure to register early. There is no charge for this interesting program.

Chinese Chicken Dumplings
Thursday, February 12  7-8 p.m.
Registration begins Monday, January 12
Ms. Kathy returns to make Chinese chicken dumplings to celebrate the Chinese New Year. After a demonstration, participants will prepare all the ingredients including precooked chicken. Dumpling wrappers are used to create delicious Chinese dumplings. Students will then take them home to cook. Please be advised that this class may contain food allergens. There is no charge for this scrumptious program, but there is a limit of 25 participants.

Hip Hop Program
Thursday, February 19  7-8 p.m.
Registration begins Monday, January 12
Mary Douglas from the South Shore School of Dance will lead a fun dance class that focuses on warm-up, grooves and the latest hip hop moves. This program is suitable for both boys and girls. There is no charge for this energetic program. Be sure to wear comfortable clothes.

Irish Soda Bread
Thursday, March 12  7-8 p.m.
Registration begins Thursday, February 12
Ms. Kathy returns again to help celebrate St. Patrick’s Day. Participants will learn how to make a simple, delicious traditional Irish soda bread. Each student will make their own and take it home to bake. Please be advised that this class may contain allergens. There is no charge for this yummy program, but there is a limit of 25 participants.

Ransom Note Workshop
Thursday, March 26  7-8:30 p.m.
Registration begins Thursday, February 12
Working in small groups, participants will use forensic techniques including handwriting and ink analysis and magnetic fingerprinting to “unmask” the author of an age appropriate ransom note. Laura Froeschl of Jr. Crime Investigators will present this unusual program. There is no charge for this CSI type program.

Where is the Money Tree?
College Financial Aid
